KINDERGARTEN READINESS CAMP

Summer 2009 Program Information

Playing with a Purpose!

Child Success Center's Kindergarten Readiness Camp is outdoor play – indoors!

The small group structure (1:6/1:7) allows all children the opportunity to explore and learn through indoor sensory play with finger paint, water and sand play, gym time, reader's theater, arts & crafts, and more!

Your child will learn and enhance kindergarten readiness skills through PURPOSEFUL PLAY- learning activities that involve whole body movement, dramatic play, & getting messy!

- Develop phonemic awareness through rhyming games and books
- Build sound/symbol association for reading with Zoo-phonics
- Teach correct pencil grasp & handwriting skills through multisensory, hands-on activities
- Enrich problem-solving skills to boost self-efficacy and independence
- Build social & communication skills through games and activities
- Build math skills- counting, simple addition, sorting
- Promote body awareness through creative play and movement

Kindergarten Readiness Camp will run in two 3-week sessions. Week 1, 2, & 3 of each session will have different themes.

To take full advantage of the curriculum, we recommend that you enroll in Session I or II. (Weekly registration is also available.)
